

Chamber of Commerce Recognizes ExecHealth as Professional Service of the Year Finalist.

Ottawa, November 1, 2009. – ExecHealth has been recognized by the Ottawa Chamber of Commerce as a 2009 finalist in the category of Professional Service of the Year. The award will be handed out at the Ottawa Chamber of Commerce Business Achievements Awards on November 26, 2009.

“It is an honour to be nominated and a terrific way to end a very exciting year” says Sanjay Shah, President.

Since 2005 ExecHealth had been providing comprehensive medical assessments to busy professionals and their families. To further enhance the care of its clients, ExecHealth opened a new Executive Medical Clinic in downtown Ottawa earlier this year.

ExecHealth’s expanded services include a personal physician service for ongoing care and a medical concierge service to expedite surgeries, MRIs and specialist appointments through private channels when public wait times are too long.

About ExecHealth Inc.

ExecHealth is an Ottawa -based health management company that specializes in keeping its clients healthy through preventative and ongoing medical care programs. Its Comprehensive Health Assessments are designed to proactively identify and address preventable diseases and other health issues before they become serious. These assessments, which include detailed diagnostic testing, go far beyond the standard physical examination and are designed for the early detection and prevention of diseases such as cancer and heart disease.

Corporations enlisted the services of ExecHealth to ensure their key employees remain healthy and performing at their best. These firms have also found ExecHealth’s program to be a powerful retention and recruitment tool in a competitive environment.
